Psi Alpha continues Research Project:

Psi Alpha, along with Dr. Douglas Bernstein of the psychology department at the University of South Florida, are continuing to research the beliefs of high school psychology teachers regarding human behavior and mental processes. Advisors are encouraged to complete a carefully crafted survey aimed at discovering knowledge and certain beliefs revolving around psychology. This survey has been sent to advisors directly and Psi Alpha hopes for advisor participation to generate data to help reveal beliefs and certain aspects that may require more focus when teaching in the future.

Advisors, your participation is crucial to this research project and is greatly appreciated. If you have not already completed the survey, please consider doing it now with the provided survey link in your email. You can also reach out to research@psialpha.org with questions or concerns.

Thank you for your participation!

HONOR SOCIETY FOR
HIGH SCHOOL PSYCHOLOGY

Psychology Honor Societies Collaboration Map.

After lots of hard work, a new tool has been developed by two members of the Psi Alpha team. Nevin and Jacob have created the Psychology Honor Societies Collaboration Map. This interactive map displays the location, name of institution, name of advisor, and honors society affiliation for all Psi Alpha, Psi Beta and Psi Chi chapters. This map will be beneficial for all members of psychology honor societies and provide them with information aiding in joining and transferring between honors societies in their academic journey. It also provides the opportunity for collaboration between chapters that are within close proximity. Mentoring from advisors among chapters is another aspect of this map that is beneficial to students interested in conducting research. For access to the map, please contact research@psialpha.org. The Psychology Honor Societies Collaboration Map will be available to access on Psi Alpha's website in the future.

Dear Abbey Column

WHAT IS THE DEAR ABBEY COLUMN?

Inspired by the original Dear Abby column found in the newspaper, established in 1956. Readers of the paper could send in their questions to “Abby” and she would respond with an answer.

Psi Alpha would love to answer your questions about memberships, scholarships and anything Psi Alpha related!

Questions can be sent in privately through Psi Alphas media direct messages, a post on X or emailing @mediaintern@psialpha.org.
